Dear Dr. Burleigh,

We received your very kind letter of the 19th, and were so pleased to hear from you so soon after your return to Canada. It was indeed a pleasure having you with us; and we too will look forward to your next visit.

We especially thank you, on behalf of our department, for "The Bones of David Redding", and "The Freeman Family of Saratoga County"; both compilations being a fine example of your ability.

Our best wishes for your good health, and we do look forward to a visit from you in the very near future.

Sincerely yours,

Query to Vire Tobias Hogeboom

9.3%

93 9 1000
1000

When I visited your Archives a week or more ago, I left my search of the Hogeboom family incomplete as I could not recall the name of the first family of the name to come to Canada. Since arriving home, I feel that I have the case requiring only a short bit of research. I am therefore wondering if you could do it - for me and my friend, of course at your usual fee for search. If so, I shall outline our need.

Tobias Hogeboom, presumably born about 1760-1770, came to Canada about 1810 with his wife, Sueretia, and a family of 5 or 6 sons & 1 daughter. They may have been more.

Tobias died in 1830, or thereabouts. His will, made ^{and} probated 12 Dec 1832, mentioned his wife Sueretia, sons Gilbert, ~~John~~ born 12 March 1799, John born 14 Feb 1804, Stephen born 25 March 1810, James, Cornelius, ~~Sentinde~~ and Maria. There looks as if there had been an older daughter Sentinde.

I discovered two Tobias Hogebooms, both born at Claverack, the first in 1760 and the second ^{baptized} on 3 Nov. 1770. The father of the second was married in Amherstburg, but his children, including Tobias, were born and baptized in Claverack.

Could you please look in the Dutch Reformed church ^{& Claverack} records for these people up to 1810, and forward your results together with your bill for same?

Dear Mrs. Fallon and All:

Many thanks for your letter. I appreciate your effort to serve me, and I inclose postal note to cover cost.

Although you were not able to solve my problem, you did open the door to further prodding. I shall outline future procedure, as I see it.

It would seem to me that our Tobias may not have been born in the Columbia County area. Nor could I find his name in the complete listing in the Census of 1790, which I have in my library. This is easily realized, as our Tobias was not yet married, if I am right. His first child was born in 1799, according to our records. So I assume that he was not yet married in 1790. This being so, his name should appear in the 1800 Census List. If you have this List available, perhaps you can locate him. He should have a wife, with at least one son under 16, and perhaps more. Please look into it for me, with, of course, your bill for service. And may you find his name, thus giving you a lead to certain Church records.

May I thank you once more for your kindness in the past, and I look forward to seeing you both in the Spring. May you both face a very happy new year, and may all your troubles be little ones.

Again my thanks.

Loyally yours,

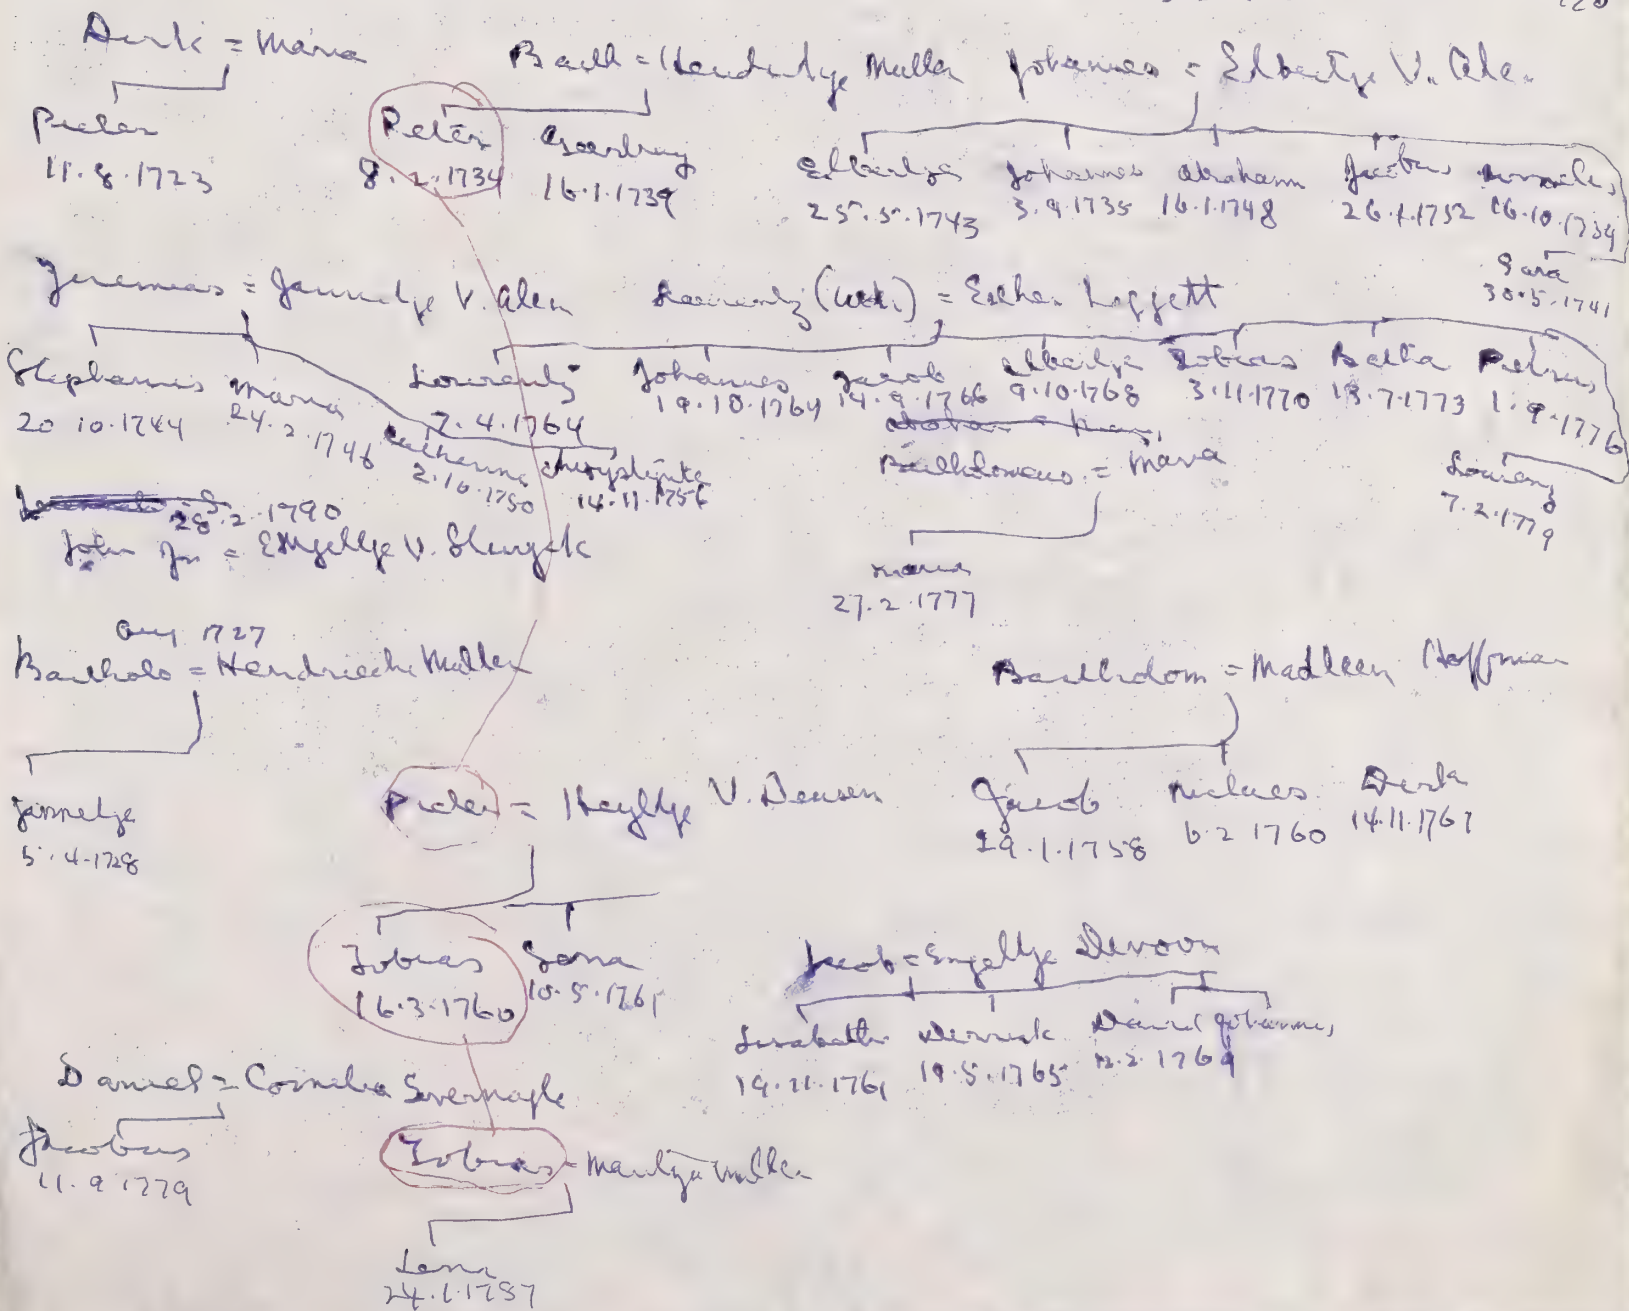

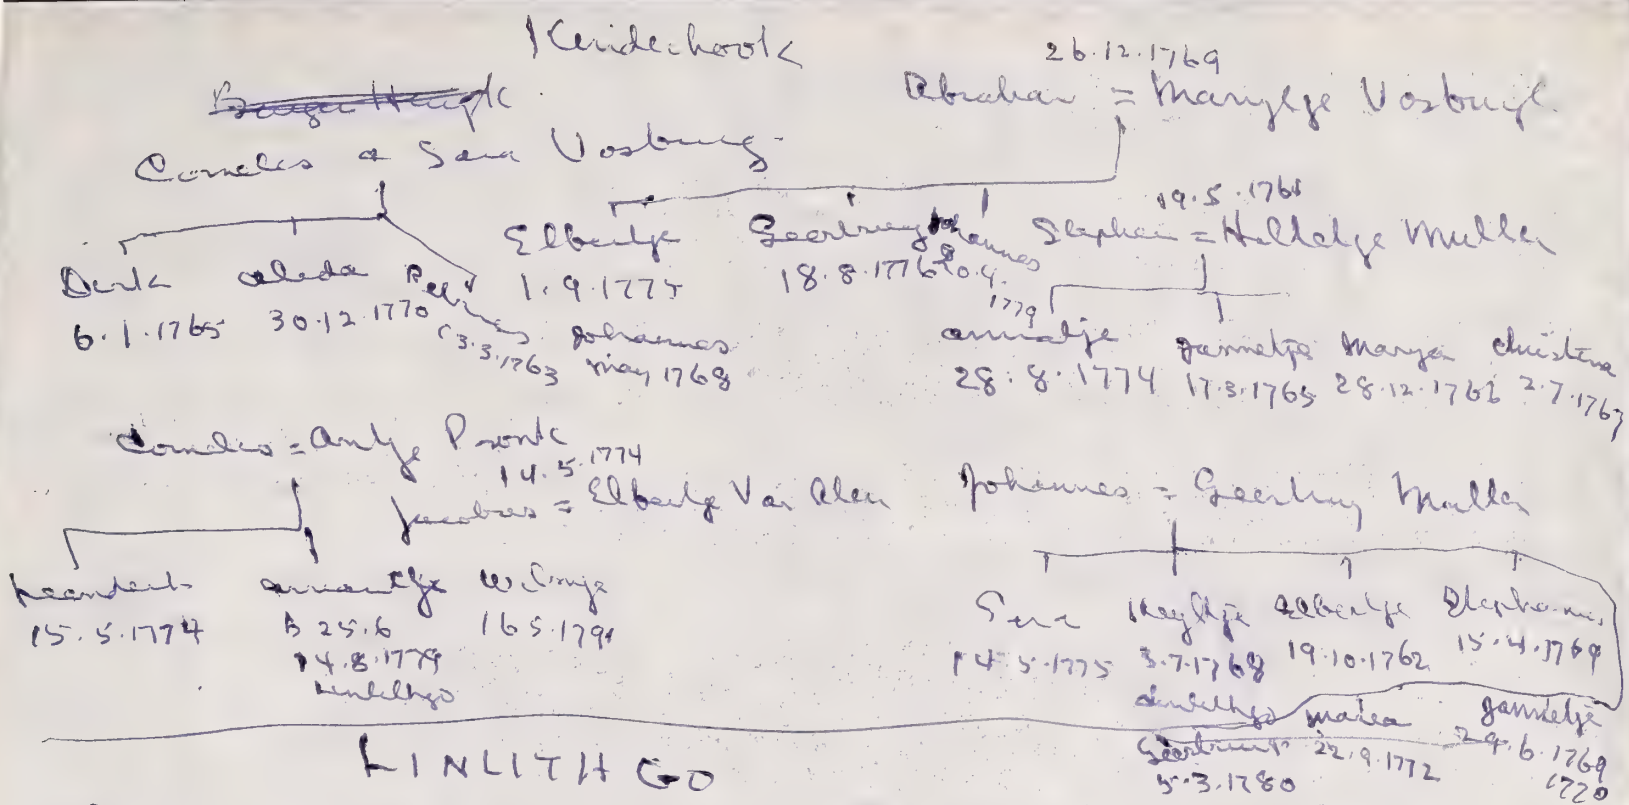

PS

Dear Sir,

Thank you for the help you have given in helping me trace whether my husband's family were United Empire Loyalists or not. Below is a part of the family tree as far as I can trace it:

I hope that this will be sufficient for determining the authenticity of a claim to United Empire Loyalist ancestry. I shall be willing to pay whatever fees are involved in tracing the validity of the claim.

Thank you,

Yours truly,

in the prospectus of the Chronicle. The following is the state of the case. After the meeting of the Presbytery, and before the Editors separated, they resolved to proceed in the work, and stood upon the plan. And for my own part, I had not so much as heard that the Christian Recorder was in contemplation to be published, and therefore could not possibly consider it as "a thing of ought."

I apprehend you have entertained a wrong idea, that the prospectus was written about, or after the time that you were asked to give your proposal for printing the proposed work. I confess it was a natural conclusion, and without being formed, you would not know otherwise. But it was published in substance, it had been drawn up and in my possession long before that time.

THE EDITOR AT FREDERICKSBURG.

Kingston Chronicle

KINGSTON, OCTOBER 1, 1819.

The accounts from England are of a late date, but furnish intelligence of an every pleasing nature. The meeting of reformers at Manchester, which had been for some time expected, at length took place on the 16th August, and was attended with very melancholy results. After reading the act, the civil Magistrates, supported by the Grenadier Cavalry, and some regular troops, succeeded to disperse the mob, in doing which about many lives were unfortunately lost. — Next, the leader, and a number of other demagogues of low morality, by whom the poor people had been misled into a belief that a radical reform, or more properly speaking, a total subversion of the existing Constitution, was imperiously required for the salvation of the country; and that the most violent measures should be adopted to obtain this end, were apprehended, and were immediately beheaded according to their deserts. Tranquillity, it would however appear, as to the prospectus, it was an oversight by them when they sent their prospectus to the press, to say "that there was no such work in the Chronicle."

We shall be happy to insert the Penny signed W. B. F. if the volunteer who desires an insertion will call and insert the manuscript copy which he has sent us.

DROWNED.

On Saturday the 29th September, Peter Davidson, and his nephew, Alexander Davidson, in the sporting of a small boat, in which, with a boy, they were crossing from Kingston to Point Frederick. The boy reached the shore in safety by swimming; and it is supposed that Peter Davidson might have saved himself in the same way, if, after falling over the stern, he had not attempted to return to the assistance of his sinking nephew.

Peter Davidson was aged 34 years, a native of Glasgow, and a Warrant Officer in His Majesty's 4th Buffs. His nephew, Alexander, was a young man of 18 years of age, and had only arrived from Scotland a few days before. Peter Davidson, we are informed, has left a wife and two children, with whose relations, who depended on him and his nephew for a subsistence.

On Monday night, Thomas Robinson, a fireman of the 10th Regiment, — he had embarked in a wooden canoe, and was crossing from Point Henry to the fort on Point Frederick, when, by some mischance, the canoe was overboard, and the unfortunate man sank to the bottom.
